my moving brain

MY MOVING BRAIN

Community Connect Event in Dublin

Join us for a day of fun, learning & connection as we bring together the community to share personal stories, expertise & ideas to promote inclusion in sport for people living with a range of brain conditions

Our Speakers

Prof Norman Delanty

Claire Behan

Emma Beamish

Phil O'Dwyer

Gwen O'Looney

TBC

Kinta Oakes

Living with a Brain Condition: insights from a neurologist Prof Norman Delanty, Clinical Neurologist, Beaumont Hospital .

Competing Internationally with a Neurological Condition
Emma Beamish, former Ireland cricketer and person living with epilepsy

Making School Sports Accessible for All
Speaker TBC

Practical Aspects of Playing Sports with a Neurological Condition
Claire Behan, Epilepsy Research Nurse Practitioner
Kinta Oakes, parent of a young adult living with a brain condition

Climbing the Himalayas - how exercise helps manage my brain condition
Phil O'Dwyer – person living with early on-set Parkinson's

Resources Available in the Community for Coaches and Families
Gwen O' Looney, Sports Disability Officer, DLRSP

Panel Discussion –Making Sports Accessible – Opportunities and Obstacles

This event aims to bring sports coaches, families and people impacted by neurological conditions together to connect with the community, join the conversation on brain health and wellness in sport and try fun activities for all ages and abilities!

16th November 2024, 1.30-5pm

Blackrock College, Co. Dublin

Scan the QR code to register future neuro

epilepsy Ireland

Sports Partnership

nai NEUROLOGICAL ALLIANCE of IRELAND

Taighde Éireann Research Ireland